

AMI SLIDING SCALE FEES

Atlanta Mindfulness Institute offers a sliding scale fee for most of our classes, workshops, retreats, and trainings. Our intention is to make mindfulness accessible to as many people as possible, regardless of financial circumstances. In addition, our sliding scale fee offers those who are more fortunate in their financial circumstances to practice generosity. Please choose the amount that best fits your current financial ability. If you are unable to pay our subsidized tuition but have a desire to participate in one of our classes, please email us as our intention is to make this available to everyone.

The middle tuition cost is generally what it costs for AMI to cover the costs of the course, retreat, training, or workshop

There are 3 levels on our sliding scale fees:

- Supporter Rate: At this level (above the middle value on the sliding scale), your registration fees generally exceed the costs of your attending an offering and help to subsidize the reduced fees paid by others who have more challenging financial circumstances.
- Base Rate: At this level (the middle value on our sliding scale), your registration fees generally fully cover the costs of your attending an offering.
- Subsidized Rate: At this level (below the middle value on the sliding scale), your registration fees generally do not fully cover the costs of your attending an offering. If you select this level, your registration will be subsidized by others, either via the general donations people offer or through the additional fees paid by those selecting a Supporting Level fee.
